DETAILED ACTIONDrawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the plurality of thicknesses with at least some of the plurality of metal layers have a greater thickness of the plurality of thicknesses than other metal layers of the plurality of metal layers must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 2832

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 5, applicant should clarify the structure/arrangement of the plurality of thicknesses. Applicant should clarify what is intended by "at least some of the plurality of metal layers have a greater thickness of the plurality of thicknesses than other metal layers of the plurality of metal layers."

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 and 5-6, as best understood in view of the rejection under 35 USC 112 second paragraph, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yang et al. [US 6,801,114] in view of Sakata [US 2001/0017582 A1].

Yang et al. discloses an on-chip transformer [figures 2A-5] comprising :

- a plurality of metal layers of an integrated circuit ;
- first and second nodes [figure 2A] on a first layer of the plurality of metal layers;
- a multi-layer winding [figures 4-5] on at least some of the plurality of metal layers, wherein the multi-layer winding coupled to the first and second nodes and symmetrical with respect to the first and second nodes; and

Art Unit: 2832

- center tap [62] coupled to the multi-layer winding such that the multi-layer winding is symmetrical about the center tap with respect to the first and second nodes.

Yang et al. inherently discloses the instant claimed invention except for the metallization of the winding on each of the at least some of the plurality of metal layers is in approximate range of twenty to eighty percent.

Sakata discloses an inductor comprising a plurality of conductor patterns on main surfaces of a plurality of layers having a projected area in the range of 35% to 75% [abstract].

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to use the conductor pattern design of Sakata in Yang et al. for the purpose reducing DC resistance.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-6 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
